Welcome to The View.....

Perched high overlooking the city of Easton, Pennsylvania, The View at Morgan Hill is one of the Lehigh Valley's newest wedding & event facilities. Located off exit 75 on Rt 78, the venue is easily accessible from points in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, & New York. Our Grand View Room can accommodate up to 150 guests, & boasts a modern, elegant feel. We only host one wedding at a time, so the day is truly yours.

Wedding Ceremonies

Our ceremony location overlooks impressive mountainsides & provides a stunning backdrop for your "I do." If an indoor ceremony is what you desire, our Grand View Room allows protection from the elements & allows the same mountain views.

"The venue was beautiful, & achieved all of my goals of finding not any old reception room. The view was incredible, & the picture opportunities were endless. The staff was more than responsive & were able to suggest things that I never would have thought of. The venue made the process so easy, & comfortable..." - Whitney

"There is only one word that comes to mind when I think about my wedding at The View at Morgan Hill: AMAZING! The venue was simply amazing in and of itself... I seriously can't have imagined getting married anywhere else & I highly recommend this venue! The views were awesome, the venue was perfect, the cost was beyond reasonable, the drinks were amazing, & the food was even better!..." - Gabrielle

"Cannot say enough about how amazing this venue is! The moment we drove into the area I knew this is where we had to get married. There is not just one view, but so many that it truly gives you a great amount of options for photos! From downtown Easton, to the golf course, to the mountains, and so many more it truly made for gorgeous photos! The food was incredible and the service was unmatched...." - Kiersten
